

Discrete Dynamics on Grids with Choice

KATY E. BEELER¹, KENNETH S. BERENHAUT², PETER S. BARR³

¹ Department of Mathematics, Wake Forest University, 27109–North Carolina, USA.
E-mail address: beelk11@wfu.edu

² Department of Mathematics, Wake Forest University, 27109–North Carolina, USA.
E-mail address: berenhks@wfu.edu

URL: <http://www.math.wfu.edu/Faculty/berenhaut.html>

³ Department of Mathematics, Wake Forest University, 27109–North Carolina, USA.
E-mail address: barrps12@wfu.edu

In this talk we consider deterministic movement on graphs, integrating local information, memory and choice at nodes. The research is motivated by recent work on deterministic random walks and applications in multi-agent systems. Several results regarding passing messages through toroidal grids are discussed, as well as some open questions.