

Surgery on a family of transcendental meromorphic maps

ALEX RODRÍGUEZ

Stony Brook University

In this talk a surgery process applied to a meromorphic map is explained. The main result is that the Julia set of some functions in this family contains a Cantor bouquet (a homeomorphic copy of the Julia set of an exponential map). The proof requires to interpolate in an unbounded domain.